WASHINGTON, D. C., APRIL 12, 1881.

NO, NEVER! BY JAMES K. SIMMS (IMPERIAL.)

Were you ever alone, and did your heel Press gently upon an orange peel? Did the wicked newsboy your sorrows mock As you sat right down on the stone sidewalk? Were you ever alone when the evening bright Was being used for a chicken fight? When the "best police" upon you fell, And you slept that night in a prison cell?

Were you ever alone when others were near And you had to set them up the beer Because a tumble they would not take And leave you alone, your thirst to slake?

Were you ever alone after drinking wine, And thinking the brand was superfine? Have you tried real hard to heave it up, And sworn to forever forsake the cup?

PEANUTS.

-When a young man first essays the latest fashionable dance he is liable to tumble to -A doorkeeper at the theatre would make a good fortune-teller if he could tell the future as well as he can the passed.

-An Iowa paper speaks of a couple who "were separated by a cold cloud of realism." This is a new name for the old man's boot. -Florence Percy, who wrote "Rock Me to Sleep," is living with her third husband, the two others having been successfully rocked,-

-Student fresh from college to con-take the smoker." -There is a girl in New Orleans so modest that she pulls her veil down whenever she sees an old pair of pants lying out in the street. We would like to see the town that can scare up a more modest girl.

-Materfamilias (finding the nurse deep in a sensational novel)-"Surely, nurse, you can't nurse 'Baby' and read at the same time!" Nurse-"Oh, Lor", yes, 'm. She doesn't disturb my reading a bit, 'm!"

-"Would you say," asked Professor Stearns, "'I would rather walk' or 'I had rather walk?" "I would say," replied the smart, bad boy, "I had rather ride,' most emphatically." And he was marked three below zero, with cloudy or partly clearing weather.—Burlington Hawkeye. -"What," said Squib, as he pushed back from the table, "is the difference between a low price for a show and Sara Bernhardt's prices?" "About $2.50," replied his practical wife.
"No," replied Squib, in disgust, "What is it, then?"
"Well," replied Squib, "one is a nominal fee and the other is phenomenal."

On the Rail.

Riding in a railroad car: Husband-"You are quite comfortable, dear " Wife-" Yes, love." Husband-"The cushions are easy and soft, ducky?" Wife-"Yes, darling." Husband-"You don't feel any jolts, pet?" Wife-"No, sweetest." Husband-"And there is no draught on my lamb, is there, angel?" Wife-" No, my ownest own." Husband-"Then change seats

Wall Street Transactions-The Latest Quotation in Stocks and Bonds-New York and Baltimore Produce Markets-London

The following observations on the transactions in the financial market yesterday, together with opening, highest, lowest, and closing quotations, are furnished by the banking-house of H. D. Cooke, jr., & Co., 1420 F street, Washington, D. C.:

and Paris Money Markets.

We have another dull and drooping market to-day, and little of importance to record. At the close the and little of importance to record. At the close the list shows a decline from opening of ½ to 2½ per cent., the latter Lake Shore and Manhattan Elevated. The exceptions to the general decline have been St. Paul 1223 F street northwest. the latter Lake Shore and Manhattan Elevated. The exceptions to the general decline have been St. Paul and Hannibal and St. Joseph, each 1/2 per cent. up. The decline may be attributed to two sources-the report of another snowfail in the Northwest and the rumor of a rupture in the trunk line pool. The most important financial denouement we have had for several weeks came too late to have any effect on to-day's market. We allude to Secretary Windom's decision on the maturing United States bonds. The circular was not issued until after four o'clock (after 'Change hours). Its effect (if there is to be any) will be first felt to night at the "uptown exchanges" (the Windsor and Fifth Avenue Hotels). Many speculators and brokers meet at these points in the evenings and discuss matters relative to prices on 'Change. Frequently it occurs that the business arranged at these points has a very important effect on the next morning's market. The ultimatum of Sceretary Windom's decision is a call for the sixes (maturing after June 30), to which is annexed another proposition. He also offers for sale the $104,000,630 fours and four and and a ductor-"I wish to get on the penultimate car." halfs, authorized but unissued. It is believed that it Conductor—"We have no peanut ear; you can is with the proceeds of sale of these latter bonds, together with the surplus revenues (amounting to about $90,000,000) that he proposes to redeem the sixes. Money easy at 5@6 per cent.

The stock market was weak in the early dealings, and a slight decline took place, which was recovered at the first board. Subsequently, however, the speculation became weak, and a pressure to sell was developed, which resulted in a decline of $1,693\(^2\) per cent, the elevated railway shares, Central Pacific, Reading, St. Paul and Omalia preferred, and Western Union leading the downward movement. The market continued weak until near the close, when a firmer feeling prevailed and a recovery of $1,61\(^2\) per cent, took place, which was most marked in the elevated stocks and Central Pacific.
